

HOW YOU CAN HELP THE TAYLOR FAMILY ASSOCIATION

Ways to support and strengthen our family community

WAYS TO HELP
AND CONTRIBUTE TO THE TAYLOR
FAMILY
ASSOCIATION

BECOME A LEGACY CONSULTANT

Role of Legacy Consultants

Legacy Consultants preserve and share family stories, photos, and documents to protect family history.

Support and Flexibility

The program provides training, digital tools, and flexible time commitments for participant convenience.

Community and Connection

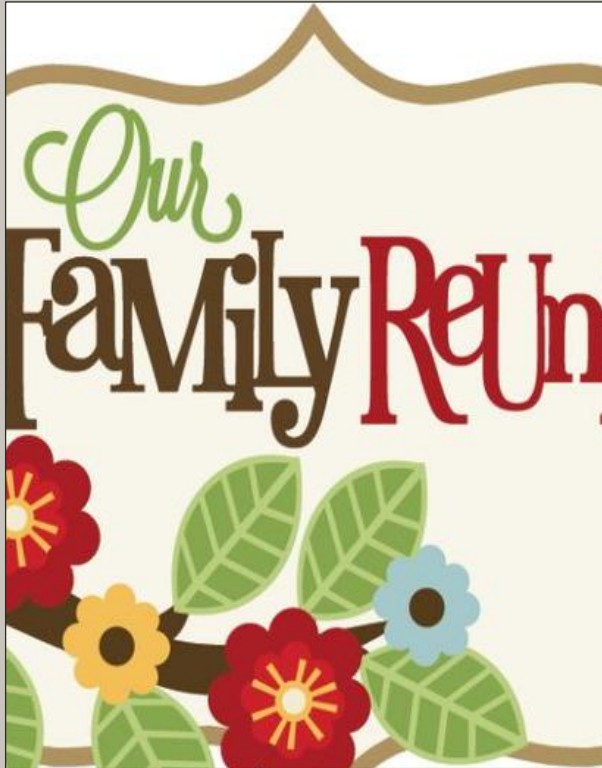

Consultants connect through Zoom gatherings, collaborating and feeling part of a supportive team.

Accessible to Everyone

No professional genealogy or writing skills needed; participants learn and share knowledge together.

HELP BUILD THE 2027 REUNION

Reconnect Family Members

Identify and reconnect with living descendants across all family branches to ensure no one feels forgotten.

Inclusive Contribution

Genealogy skills aren't required; planning, creativity, and communication are equally valuable for reunion success.

Community Collaboration

The reunion thrives on many hands working together to create a welcoming, joyful gathering for all ages.

CONTRIBUTE TO THE TFA NEWSLETTER

Inclusive Contribution Opportunities

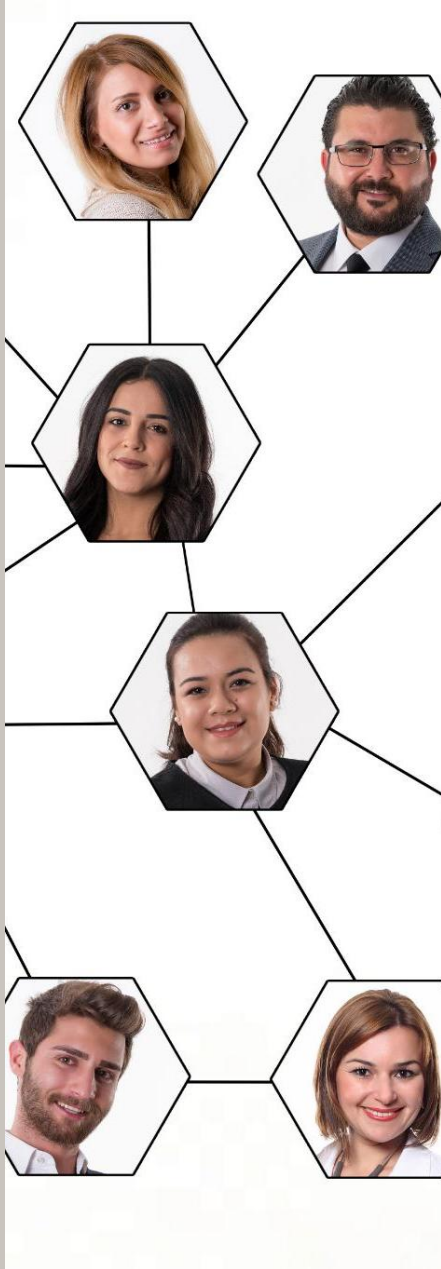

The newsletter welcomes diverse content including articles, family stories, milestones, and personal accomplishments.

No Experience Required

Contributors need not be professional writers; passion and willingness to share are enough to participate.

Preserving Family Legacy

Contributions help preserve family history and stories, connecting past, present, and future generations.

WHY THIS MATTERS

Preserving Family Stories

TFA focuses on preserving family stories before they are lost, making history meaningful beyond charts and dates.

Building Generational Bonds

Strong family connections are intentionally built through communication, collaboration, and shared effort across generations.

Impact on Future Generations

Today's contributions provide future family members with identity, belonging, and continuity in their heritage.

Honoring Ancestors and Descendants

Participation honors ancestors and supports children and grandchildren, making family an ongoing, living project.

READY TO JUMP IN?

Encouraging Simple Engagement

Invites listeners to take manageable steps like asking questions or sharing ideas without pressure.

Ways to Get Involved

Highlights three ways to participate: Legacy Consultant, reunion help, or newsletter contribution.

Personal and Approachable Contact

Named contacts make involvement feel personal, approachable, and easy to start.

Shared Ownership and Excitement

Emphasizes collective ownership of the story, inspiring excitement to help shape the future.
